FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER

This matter having come before the Court at a pretrial conference held pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. ("Rule") 16, and Michael I. Silverman, Esquire, Silverman McDonald & Friedman, 1010 N. Bancroft Parkway, Suite 22, Wilmington, DE 19805, having appeared as counsel for plaintiff and David G. Culley, Esquire, Tybout Redfearn & Pell, 750 South Madison Street, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19801, having appeared as counsel for defendants, the following actions were taken:

- (1) This is an action for personal injury. Jurisdiction is vested in this Court on the basis of diversity of citizenship pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of New Jersey. Defendant Fed Ex Ground Packaging Systems is incorporated in the State of Delaware. Venue is properly in Delaware. The jurisdictional amount has been met.
- (2) The following stipulations and statements were submitted and are attached to and made a part of this Order:
 - (a) Plaintiff: This matter stems from injuries resulting from an automobile accident. The accident occurred on August 27, 2003. Mr. White was proceeding in his work truck on Prospect Avenue in Berlin Township, New Jersey. Mr. White had the right of way in the roadway. A Federal Express truck operated by Thomas Salvo, as agent for the defendant, reversed out of a private driveway and struck Mr. White's vehicle. Liability is admitted.

As a result of this accident Mr. White had arthroscopic surgeries on both shoulders as a result of pain radiating into his arms and hands. Mr. White sustained permanent injuries to his shoulders. He also underwent injections including nerve blocks to his lower cervical and upper thoracic spine. Mr. White sustained permanent injuries to his cervical and thoracic spine. Mr. White also had pain in his left leg as a result of the accident. Mr. White continues to be symptomatic from injuries resulting from this accident. Mr. White has incurred medical bills in excess of $118,000.

Defendant: This action for personal injuries arises out of a motor vehicle accident that occurred on Prospect Avenue, Berlin Townsend, New Jersey on August 27, 2003. Plaintiff was operating a vehicle on Prospect Avenue when a Fed Ex delivery truck, operated by Thomas Salvo, backed out of a residential driveway onto Prospect Avenue. The two vehicles collided. Plaintiff claims that he sustain bodily injuries as a direct result of the accident. Agency and liability on the part of the defendant is not disputed, but there remains for determination by the jury issues of comparative negligence, the nature and extent of the plaintiff's alleged injuries and losses, and the amount of money damages which would fairly and reasonably compensate him for those alleged injuries and losses. There are no third party claims, counterclaims, or crossclaims pending in the case.

(b) Stipulated Facts:

- (1) Thomas Salvo was acting within the course and scope of an agency relationship with Fed Ex Ground Packaging Systems at the time of the subject accident.
- (2) Authenticity of all medical records and medical bills.
- (3) Negligence of the defendant

Issues of Fact to be Litigated:

Plaintiff:

- (1) The extent to which the defendant's negligence caused injury?
- (2) The amount of compensation to be awarded to the plaintiff?

Defendant:

- (1) Whether plaintiff Richard White was contributorily negligent in failing to observe the Fed Ex truck backing toward him and taking evasive action to avoid the accident and/or to warn the driver of his presence behind the truck;
- (2) The nature and extent of the Plaintiff's alleged injuries and losses;
- (3) The amount of money damages that would fairly and reasonably compensate the plaintiff for his alleged injuries and losses.

Issues of Law to be Litigated:

None
